

INTERNATIONAL WINTER SCHOOL for Master- and Doctoral Students

COMPARATIVE STUDIES IN ADULT EDUCATION & LIFELONG LEARNING

FEBRUARY 6-17, 2017
in Würzburg/Bavaria, Germany

About the Programme

- Basic concepts: „politics, policies, strategies for adult & lifelong learning“
- Levels of analysis: „mega, meso, macro and micro“
- European policy in adult and lifelong learning
- Field visits to local institutions of adult & continuing education
- Comparative research in adult education & lifelong learning

Comparative Group Work on

- Time in adult learning and education
- Innovative teaching methods for adult and lifelong learning
- Employability and transitions from higher education to labour market
- Professional identity in adult education
- Comparing the Impact of cultural institutions and organizations
- Lifelong learning OECD Policies vs. national adult education policies
- National qualification frameworks
- Soft skills as a tool for long-term employability
- National and international assessments of adult literacy skills
- Lifelong learning and national/regional CVET policies
- Work-related teaching and learning methods

Cultural Programme

- Guided city tour, Residence Palace & Franconian evening

Application Deadline: 30th September 2016

For students from COMPALL-Partner-Universities: 31st October 2016

www.lifelonglearning.uni-wuerzburg.de

Photos: Claudia Monika Kuhn, Würzburg